

Community Services

Certificate III in Community Services CHC30802

*Please note that with the introduction of a new training package in 2010 this program will undergo changes.

Job opportunities

Community services support worker.

Features

- Bracken Ridge campus: One day per week, 7 hour session 9am – 3pm
- An introduction to the Community and Human Services industry. Students completing this course may choose to advance their studies and employment prospects by undertaking Diploma programs in a range of specialisations such as Welfare Work or Youth Work
- $10 material fee per person, per semester for program.

Semester one

CHCCOM2B	Communicate with clients and colleagues
CHCINF2B	Maintain organisation's information systems
HLTFA1A	Apply basic first aid
CHCADMIN5C	Work within administrative protocols

Semester two

CHCGRP2C	Support group activities
CHCGRP3C	Plan and conduct group activities
CHCORG3B	Participate in the work environment

Semester three

CHCCD12D	Community development framework
CHCAD1C	Advocate for clients
CHCOHS301A	Participate in workplace safety

Semester four

CHCCS301A	Work in legal and ethical framework
CHCCS401A	Facilitate cooperative behaviour
CHCCS402A	Respond holistically to client issues